The Dorsey Health Law blog team keeps readers up-to-date on relevant topics in the health care industry. In order to do so, the members of the blog team communicate regularly with other practice groups within the firm for applicable updates from client publications. For this post, we would like to thank Dorsey's Kirk Schuler, Mike Sevilla, and Andrew Stone for the following e-newsletter update:

Attorney General Bondi's first actions in her role as chief law enforcement officer of the Federal Government demonstrate her focus on immigration enforcement. This may lead to additional criminal investigations into companies that are suspected of employing undocumented immigrants, and could even lead to criminal cases against state and local officials who choose not to comply with requests from federal immigration authorities. Organizations and individuals, public and private, should ensure they are prepared for these potential enforcement actions.
