The Dorsey Health Law blog team keeps readers up-to-date on relevant topics in the health care industry. In order to do so, the members of the blog team communicate regularly with other practice groups within the firm for applicable updates from client publications. For this post, we would like to thank Dorsey's Alex Hontos, Chris DeLong, Seth Goertz, Matthew Gillespie, and Anna Ashley for the following e-newsletter update:

The Department of Justice (DOJ) announced that False Claims Act (FCA) settlements and judgments surpassed $6.8 billion in FY 2025—the highest single-year total in FCA history. DOJ reported a record 1,297 qui tam filings and 401 new government investigations opened for the year. Healthcare fraud enforcement once again dominated the recoveries, accounting for more than $5.7 billion of the total.
