

Federal Assistance in Jeopardy? What to Know about OMB Guidance About Hundreds of Billions in Federal Research and Loans to Research Institutions, Universities, and Private Organizations

January 28, 2025 – Dorsey Health Law

by Alex Hontos, Chris DeLong, and Eric Weisenburger

The Dorsey Health Law blog team keeps readers up-to-date on relevant topics in the health care industry. In order to do so, the members of the blog team communicate regularly with other practice groups within the firm for applicable updates from client publications. For this post, we would like to thank Dorsey's Alex Hontos, Christopher DeLong, and Eric Weisenburger for the following e-newsletter update:

On January 27, the Acting Director of the Office of Management & Budget issued a new Memorandum (M-25-13) that presages significant disruption—if not outright cancellation—of many federal assistance awards. Spanning federal grants and federal loans and loan guarantees, recipients of such funds should be paying close attention to current or planned projects, experiments, research, and programs funded in whole or in part by federal funds.

Read More >

Related People

- Alex Hontos
- Chris DeLong
- Eric Weisenburger

Related Capabilities

- Healthcare & Life Sciences
- Healthcare Transactions & Regulations
- Healthcare Litigation