Aaron advises clients on complex commercial real estate transactions with significant experience in the hospitality sector.

Aaron Robinow advises investors and developers across the full lifecycle of commercial real estate transactions. His practice centers on acquisitions, dispositions, development, joint ventures, preferred equity investments and financing—guiding deals from initial structuring through closing.

In the hospitality space, Aaron counsels clients on the acquisition, development, financing, and disposition of hotels and restaurants. He regularly advises on hotel management and franchise agreement negotiations with leading global hotel franchisors, applying a practical, commercially focused approach to the specific legal and business considerations that hotel transactions present.

Beyond hospitality, Aaron advises on a range of real estate capital structures, including preferred equity and mezzanine financings, senior debt transactions, and commercial mortgage-backed securities (CMBS) matters. His clients include private equity firms, family offices, institutional investors, and developers active in multifamily, industrial, student housing, net-lease, and mixed-use asset classes.
