New York – 212.415.9356

Alan structures cross-border M&A for businesses pursuing growth across global markets —turning complex, multi-jurisdictional deals into closed transactions.

Alan Wen advises companies, funds, and investors on the full arc of a transaction, from initial structuring through signing and closing. His practice centers on mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, corporate governance, and restructurings, with particular depth in deals that cross borders.

Clients working on deals across various industries, including the energy, infrastructure, healthcare and technology sectors, rely on Alan to manage the moving parts that make domestic and cross-border transactions successful, and keep complex deal structures on track. His transactional work spans both domestic U.S. matters and international deals, including transactions involving European and Asia-Pacific counterparties.

Alan also has extensive experience advising clients on greenfield projects and general corporate matters.
