Brittany is a commercial litigator who helps individuals and businesses resolve high-stakes disputes in Arizona and beyond. She pairs practical, business-minded counsel with a tenacious, trial-ready approach to litigation and has a record of success at bench and jury trials. Brittany prosecutes and defends claims involving fraud, breach of contract, business torts, defamation, restrictive covenant issues, construction defects, partnership and joint venture disputes, and banking and finance matters. She appears in state, federal, and appellate courts and in arbitrations and mediations. Brittany counsels clients on pre-judgment remedies and receiverships and has extensive experience with post-judgment collection and enforcement.

Select Experience

- Lead trial counsel for consultant and investor in a medical device start-up; following 3-week jury trial, obtained a unanimous jury verdict resulting in a multi-million judgment in the investor's favor
- Represented a professional sports franchise in a commercial contract dispute, obtaining summary judgment in the client's favor and avoiding trial
- Represented a secured lender holding a $10 million first-position lien on real property and obtained declaratory relief restoring the lien after it was stripped in a receivership proceeding by a court lacking subject-matter jurisdiction
- Represented national auction company and negotiated a favorable settlement in dispute against the Arizona attorney general's office
