

Daniel Wassim

Associate

wassim.daniel@dorsey.com

Minneapolis – 612.492.6749

Daniel counsels clients at every stage of the litigation process.

Drawing on his state and federal experience at both the trial and appellate levels, Daniel meets clients where they are at and brings a tailored, detail-oriented approach to resolving their litigation matters.

Prior to joining Dorsey, Daniel served as a judicial law clerk for Justice Natalie E. Hudson on the Minnesota Supreme Court. In law school, Daniel served as Executive Notes Editor of the Georgetown Law Journal and represented clients in impact litigation at Georgetown Law's Appellate Courts Immersion Clinic.

Select Experience

- Drafted reply brief and argued civil rights case before federal appellate court; secured reversal for client on federal due process and First Amendment claims. *
- Drafted reply brief that helped convince federal appellate court to reverse dismissal of Fair Labor Standards Act and state law claims. *

*Experiences occurred prior to joining Dorsey.

Professional Affiliations

- Board Member, Minnesota Lavender Bar Association
- Member, Minnesota State Bar Association Access to Justice Committee

Clerkships

- Minnesota Supreme Court, Justice Natalie E. Hudson, 2022–2023

Charitable & Civic Involvement

- Singer, One Voice Mixed Chorus

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2022)
 - magna cum laude
 - Order of the Coif
- Georgetown University (B.S., International Politics)
 - summa cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Minnesota

Additional Information

United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Judicial Extern to Judge Rudolph Contreras, 2020-2020

Insights

May 29, 2024

Some Serious Strings Attached: Sponsored Research Funding, Adequate Accounting Systems, and False Claims Act Exposure