Boise – 208.617.2554

Lauren advises clients on mergers and acquisitions, venture capital financings, and other corporate transactions, helping clients navigate each stage of a transaction with a practical and collaborative approach.

Lauren Bouvia advises clients on the full arc of corporate transactions, from first term sheet to final closing. She works alongside clients and deal teams throughout the transaction process, assisting with due diligence, drafting and reviewing transaction documents, and coordinating the many details necessary to move a transaction from initial discussions through closing.

Lauren approaches each transaction as a collaborative problem to solve alongside her clients. She focuses on understanding the client's business and objectives, identifying key issues as they arise, and helping clients understand the terms and risks involved in a transaction. With a practical approach, Lauren works to help clients navigate the transaction process and reach a successful closing.
