

Liqui Tang

Associate

tang.liqui@dorsey.com

New York – 212.415.9299

Liqui leverages multi-jurisdictional experience to support clients in business transactions.

Liqui is a member of Dorsey & Whitney's corporate group and U.S.-China practice group. Liqui has been practicing with top law firms in the U.S. and China and has substantial experience advising clients in various cross-border transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, venture capital investments, and foreign direct investments.

Select Experience

- Advised leading U.S.- and China-based venture capital firms and private equity firms in their investments in China- and Asia-based companies across a variety of sectors, including artificial intelligence, life science/biotech, crypto currency, video game, social media, food, cosmetics, retail chain, and manufacturing.
- Advised a broad range of U.S.- and China-based companies (from startups to super unicorns) throughout their lifecycles from incorporation to debt and equity financings at various stages.
- Advised a restaurant chain company in its group reorganization and business expansion matters.
- Advised leading solar and related industry companies in their greenfield investments in the U.S.

Accolades

- Contributed more than 50 Diversity & Inclusion hours, 2023-2024
- Consistently providing pro bono legal assistance to those in need through Dorsey's Pro Bono program

Languages

- English; Mandarin

Education

- Boston College Law School (J.D., 2019)
– cum laude
- Boston University (LL.M., 2008)
- Tongji University (Bachelor of Law, 2003)

Bar Admissions

- New York

