Phoenix – 602.735.2726

Nicole Brindejonc guides clients at all stages of bankruptcy, restructuring, and enforcement.

Nicole routinely advises lenders and other creditors through Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings and receivership actions and through out-of-court enforcement and collection processes. Nicole also has experience representing corporate debtors in both liquidation and restructuring.

In addition to her primary bankruptcy practice, Nicole regularly assists with financial services regulation and compliance and a broad range of commercial disputes.

Nicole is admitted to practice in Arizona and Guam, and before the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona and the U.S. District Court of Guam.

Select Experience

- Represented a sonogram medical practice in an out-of-court liquidation, leading strategy and communications with stakeholders, facilitating the sale of the business and its real and personal property, and negotiating with lenders to restructure outstanding debt and repay creditors, ultimately enabling the owners to retire.
- Represented a distribution and manufacturing client in a bankruptcy preference action, leading communications with the trustee's counsel and drafting correspondence and pleadings, ultimately securing a swift settlement for less than the amount originally sought by the trustee.
- Represented Mastercard in a complex Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceeding, assisting with communications with debtor's counsel and drafting pleadings to secure payment of an administrative expense claim, ultimately achieving full recovery without dispute or further litigation.
