Travis assists clients in cross-border and extraterritorial disputes.

Having both trained and worked in the United States and China, Travis has employed his unique experience to successfully represent U.S., Chinese and other companies and individuals in cross-border disputes and international arbitrations. Travis has worked with large insurance companies, asset managers, financial institutions, manufacturers and senior executives in a wide array of complex litigations and arbitrations. Travis is an active member of the Firm's award-winning U.S.-China Practice Group.

In addition to his primary dispute resolution practice, Travis frequently counsels U.S. companies by identifying and advising on potential compliance and regulatory issues that they may encounter when doing business in China. Travis also has experiences in general corporate matters, helping international companies handle legal requests and overseas business expansion.
