

Dorsey Partner Bob Cattanach Comments on Massive Yahoo Hacking

March 15, 2017

Updated March 21, 2017

Related Capabilities

- Privacy & Social Media

- Homeland Security: Arrested Alleged Hacker Used by Russian FSB Could Provide 'Valuable' Intelligence
- CBS Evening News: Russian agents facilitated Yahoo hack, spying operation, U.S. says
- USA Today: Why does Russia outsource its hacking?
- Des Moines Register: Why does Russia outsource its hacking?
- 11 ALIVE: Four charged, including 2 Russian intel officers, in massive Yahoo hacks
- KARE 11: 4 charged in massive Yahoo hacks
- Detroit Free Press: Four charged, including 2 Russian intel officers, in massive Yahoo hacks
- The Times: Four charged, including 2 Russian intel officers, in massive Yahoo hacks
- San Antonio Express: Yahoo hacking case won't mend divide between tech, government
- San Francisco Chronicle: Yahoo hacking case won't mend divide between tech, government
- Houston Chronicle: Yahoo hacking case won't mend divide between tech, government
- USA Today: Justice Dept. to announce charges in massive Yahoo hacks
- 9 News: Four charged, including 2 Russian intel officers, in massive Yahoo hacks
- The Washington Times: U.S. indicts Russian FSB agents in Yahoo hack targeting journalists, government officials
- Daily Mail: Yahoo breach indictments may shed light on other hacks
- CIO Today: Yahoo Breach Indictments May Shed Light on Other Hacks
- NewsFactor: U.S. Charges Russian Officials, Hackers in Mass Yahoo Breach
- Government Technology: Yahoo Hacking Case Won't Help Divide Between Tech, Government
- Law360: Yahoo Hack Charges Boost Feds' Profile For Future Victims
- Venture Beat: Yahoo: U.S. indictment of 4 Russians proves hack was state-sponsored